

A Vision of Hope

The trilogy at a glance · Memoir, Reflections, The Workbook

By Andrew Drasen · Franklin, Wisconsin

Three books, one arc: the story, the reflections, and the practice. Read as a set for treatment programs, reentry organizations, book clubs, and readers rebuilding a life.

RECOGNITION

- ★ National Indie Excellence Awards Finalist
- ★ Readers' Favorite 2026 Award Finalist (Non-Fiction, Social Issues)
- ★ Readers' Favorite 5-Star Review
- ★ IndieReader Approved
- ★ Kirkus Reviews (GET IT)

Addiction & Recovery, 2026

ABOUT THE SET

Readers move through the memoir for the story, Reflections for meaning, and The Workbook for a structured 90-day practice. Each stands alone; together they carry a reader from insight to daily action.

PRAISE FOR THE MEMOIR

“A powerful account of addiction and incarceration in 21st-century America. A gritty, often poignant chronicle with an insider’s look at the American prison system.”

— Kirkus Reviews (GET IT)

“More than just one man’s story. A masterclass in addiction told as it is, no holds barred.”

— Janet Mawdesley, Blue Wolf Reviews

“The reading experience feels like a heart to heart told over a bonfire. This inspirational book does exactly what it sets out to do.”

— Independent Book Review

“Goes beyond a typical recovery memoir. Appealing to anybody who believes in second chances and the quiet, daily work of transformation.”

— IndieReader (IR Approved)

“Brilliantly structured. He reveals his soul to readers. A fantastic memoir, and I highly recommend it.”

— Rabia Tanveer, Readers' Favorite (5 stars)

“A compelling redemption memoir, part of a self-help trilogy aimed at helping individuals recover from addiction, loss, or trauma.”

— BlueInk Review

“Everyone has something to recover from.”

Titles, ISBNs, and ordering

A Vision of Hope

A STORY OF REDEMPTION AND PURPOSE

A raw, unfiltered memoir of addiction, incarceration, loss, and the long climb back to purpose.

Hardcover (Dust Jacket) 979-8-9996415-6-4 ($41.99) · Hardcover (Case Laminate) 979-8-9996415-2-6 ($34.99) · Paperback 979-8-9996415-0-2 ($26.99) · eBook 979-8-9996415-1-9 ($9.99)

Pages Hardcover 398 | Paperback 418 · Trim Hardcover 6.14 x 9.21 | Paperback 6 x 9

BISAC: BIOGRAPHY & AUTOBIOGRAPHY / Memoirs; SELF-HELP / Substance Abuse & Addictions / General; POLITICAL SCIENCE / Public Policy / General

A Vision of Hope: Reflections

COMPANION REFLECTIONS VOLUME | 29 ESSAYS

A guided internal exploration that pairs with the memoir or stands alone as a recovery and self-help tool.

Paperback 979-8-9996415-4-0 ($19.99) · eBook 979-8-9996415-3-3 ($4.99)

Pages 107 · Trim 6 x 9

BISAC: SELF-HELP / Substance Abuse & Addictions / General; SELF-HELP / Personal Growth / General; SELF-HELP / Spiritual

A Vision of Hope: The Workbook

90-DAY HEALING + PURPOSE WORKBOOK

Structured for treatment programs, reentry organizations, counseling practices, and individuals seeking growth.

Paperback (workbook) 979-8-9996415-5-7 ($32.99)

Pages 167 · Trim 8.5 x 11

BISAC: SELF-HELP / Substance Abuse & Addictions / General; SELF-HELP / Journaling; EDUCATION / Curricula

DISTRIBUTION & ORDERING

Ingram (iPage) · Non-returnable · Discount: Standard trade · Rights: World

Event, stock, and bulk orders direct from the publisher: hello@avisionofhopebook.com. Wisconsin author. Stocking and in-store signings available.

LIBRARY & COMMUNITY REACH

- Selected for Indie Wisconsin (BiblioBoard), available statewide to library patrons.
- Engagement with treatment centers, reentry programs, counseling centers, and schools.

WHO IT REACHES

Addiction · Grief · Incarceration · Family trauma · Identity rebuilding. Shelf fit: Local interest, memoir, mental health, self-help, gift, and community reading.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Andrew Drasen is an author, speaker, and recovery advocate based in Franklin, Wisconsin. He wrote A Vision of Hope during incarceration, then founded A Vision of Hope Media and created ReturnPath, an identity-based curriculum now used in recovery and reentry programs. He writes and speaks from lived experience, on addiction, incarceration, and the long work of rebuilding a life with purpose.

"Everyone has something to recover from."

avisionofhopebook.com · hello@avisionofhopebook.com · (262) 383-1761